OPTIMAL FORCE STABILIZATION

SAM[®] Pelvic Sling is the first and only force-controlled circumferential pelvic belt. Featuring an optimized one-piece design, it's scientifically proven to safely and effectively reduce and stabilize open-book pelvic ring fractures.

FEATURED TECHNOLOGY

AUTOSTOP BUCKLE

The patented SAM[®] AUTOSTOP buckle acts to avoid over- or under-tightening of SAM[®] Pelvic Sling. Once optimal compressive force is reached, two prongs activate, clicking to confirm correct application. The sling is secured in place with its hook and loop system strap.

SAM[®] Pelvic Sling II

ENGINEERED TO PRESERVE LIFE

- 1 LOW-FRICTION POSTERIOR SLIDER
Easier transfers following severe trauma made possible by low-friction materials covering backside of the pelvic sling.
- 2 SAM[®] AUTOSTOP BUCKLE
Tactile and audible “click” provides clear feedback, confirming proper application and preventing over-tightening while maintaining optimal force.
- 3 PRECISION STRAP
Precisely-engineered holes lock with AUTOSTOP Buckle, allowing for quick application. Secure fastening with sturdy hook and loop strap.

- 4 TAPERED DESIGN
Narrow and tapered front facilitates urinary catheterization, interventional radiology, external fixation, and abdominal surgery without removal.
- 5 RADIOLUCENT MATERIAL
All materials are radiolucent except the buckle’s two stainless steel springs, allowing X-rays and CT-scans without removal.
- 6 3 SIZES AVAILABLE
The Standard size fits 95% of the population. Complete the set with the Small and Large sizes to fit almost any body type.

PRODUCT SPECIFICATIONS
